CIRCULAR

It has been noticed that some of the fraternity of NIT Mizoram have indulged in some activities causing financial implications without prior Administrative Approval, which are considered to be improper actions of Government Employees.

As a means to maintain administrative discipline and financial propriety, this is to inform all the existing Committees or any assigned person(s)/Official(s) given assignments are entrusted as "recommending" entities alone and may not engage in any activity without administrative approval nor enter into acts to cause financial burden, without the explicit authorization.
